The U. S. Navy is reported planning to blast the 32,700-ton Japanese battleship Nagato, above, with atomic bombs in an experiment that may decide the form of all navies in the future world. The heavily damaged Nagato, only battleship remaining to the enemy, will be towed 500 miles out to sea where atom bombs will be dropped on it to ascertain whether America's superweapon will sink a ship of this sort and the effect of the blast on the water.

Three Superforts Near United States on Non-Stop Flight

Expected to Reach Washington from Tokyo at 5:00 This Afternoon

BULLETIN
Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Two of the three B-29 Superfortresses flying non-stop from Japan to Washington reported to the war department at 2:30 p. m., EWT, today that they expected to land at Detroit because of gas shortage.
The plane commanded by Major Curtis E. LeMay reported, however, that it is expected to reach Washington.
A report from the planes said that they had been bucking head winds for five hours.

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Three Superfortresses flying non-stop from Japan to Washington flew over Edmonton, capital of Alberta province, Canada, at 10:40 a. m., Central War Time, today.
At this point the planes, each commanded by a high ranking air force general were 2,065 miles from Washington, and averaging better than 300 miles per hour. They were on schedule for the 6,500-mile flight that began at Sapporo, Hokkaido islands, Japan p. m., C. W. T., yesterday and is expected to land them at Washington at 5 p. m. today.
The world non-stop record is 7,158 miles from Egypt and Australia, established by British fliers in 1938, averaging 119 MPH. The Army air forces said the B-29 flight would set a mark for multi-engine speed aircraft.
Pass Midway Mark Early
At 8 a. m. C. W. T. Lt. Gen. Bainbridge M. Giles, commander of the flight, radioed that the three big bombers were 120 miles south of Watson Lake, Yukon territory, Canada, which is almost 100 miles past the midway point at White Horse, Canada.
In command of the other planes were Maj. Gen. Curtis E. LeMay and Brig. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell. Captain Kenneth K. Beahan, of Houston, Tex., the bombardier who dropped the atom bomb on Nagasaki is in O'Donnell's crew.
Lt. Mays' crew included Capt. William Townes, navigator, Carbondale, Ill., and Sgt. Jerome A. School, radio operator, Billon, Wis.
The Superfortresses lifted from the huge Mizutani airport near Sapporo, capital of Hokkaido, beginning at 9:01 p. m. (CWT) yesterday for the expected 26-hour flight.
Should Increase Speed
Army officials said here that the flight should have no difficulty.

Oregon Soldier is Flown Across Ocean to See Sick Mother

Flown across Europe and the Atlantic in record time, Capt. E. G. Landers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Landers, was scheduled to arrive in Oregon today to visit his mother who is seriously ill.
Stationed in Austria with the 11th medical corps, Corporal Landers, who has been overseas about 15 months, was notified of his mother's illness by the Red Cross, which helped to arrange his speedy return to this country. A plane took him first to Paris and then across the Atlantic, landing in Delaware. Another plane brought him to Chicago last night.

The War Today

DeWitt MacKenzie

Quietly but inevitably Moscow is staking claims to trusteeship over important Italian colonies which would extend Russia's already vast influence the length of the Mediterranean—long dominated by England.
This column a few days ago described the Mediterranean theater as "one of the most important zones strategically on the face of the globe." I repeat it with emphasis, for Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov—who is in London for the conference of the Big Five council of foreign ministers—has now not only made it clear that Russia is anxious to obtain a foothold on that great sea but he has given us a lead as to the specific aims of the soviet union.
Molotov told the press yesterday that Russia is interested in Italian colonies, and that there's "a grain of truth" in the report that she wants sole trusteeship over the North African colony of Tripolitania. Then, in more positive strain, he added:
"I will not conceal soviet interests in Eritrea" (the Italian colony lying on the Red sea and adjoining Ethiopia).
Beyond that he didn't go. There have been rumors that Moscow seeks trusteeship over the Dodecanese islands, which Greece wants returned to her. These lie at the mouth of the Aegean sea and so are sentinels over the western entrance to the Dardanelles Strait that leads to the Black Sea. Moscow has remained silent on this point, but has been pressing for readjustment of Turkish frontiers at the Dardanelles so as to guarantee Russia free passage of this sole gateway between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean.
If you will look at your maps of the Mediterranean theater, the picture of what is happening will be clear. Tripolitania is midway of the Mediterranean and is an important base. Eritrea, which lies at the southern mouth of the Red Sea, would be calculated to insure tight of way through that body of water and the Suez Canal which connects it with the Mediterranean on the north. Add to this the fact that Tangier, on the

Amboyites Injured in Auto Accident

Three Amboyites were injured and their car completely demolished in an automobile accident which occurred on U. S. route 52 south of Amboy Monday afternoon about 5:15. The car, driven by George Harvey with George Kiefer and Pvt. James Calhoun as passengers was coming north and sideswiped a truck loaded with empty cheese boxes which was driven by John Alt of Cusna Park.
After the crash the Amboy car crossed the paving, crashed into a steep embankment and overturned. The truck was only slightly damaged and its driver was unharmed. State Officers Russell Gentry and Clark who investigated the accident located the three injured men in Amboy. Harvey was believed to have suffered a fractured collar bone while Calhoun and Kiefer were only slightly injured.
About three years ago Alt, driver of the truck, was reported to have been involved in an accident east of U. S. route 52 on U. S. route 50 when the driver of a car which crashed head-on into the truck was killed.

Roundup of Doings in Washington for Telegraph Readers

Main Activities in National Capital Summarized by Associated Press

BULLETIN
Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Senators flouted an "earnest recommendation" of President Truman by voting today to return the United States Employment Service to the states.
By a vote of 54 to 23, they approved an amendment to unemployment compensation legislation which would give the states once again the responsibility of finding jobs for the unemployed who draw jobless benefits from state-administered funds.

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Postwar "D's"—Defense and Demobilization—kept congressional halls humming today.
The house naval committee heard Secretary of Navy James V. Forrestal urge that this country attain "control of the seas and of the skies above them."
The senate military committee heard a 37-year-old Army buck private testify he was "being railroaded" by Army officers because he encouraged other soldiers to contact congressmen regarding speedy release from the service.
There was a new approach to the subject of jobs, employment and unemployment pay. Rep. Norton (D-NJ), chairman of the house labor committee, visited President Truman to inform him she was offering legislation providing a basic 65 cent hourly minimum wage for those covered by the federal wage-hour act. She said she "left with the impression that he is agreeable to it."
Forrestal testified on legislation to fix the size of the peacetime Navy. He recommended.

Recommended Navy
An active fleet, ready for battle, of approximately 300 combat vessels; a land-up reserve of over 500 combat ships; "a ready reserve" of 100 additional major ships in commission but manned by nucleus crews.
While the active fleet would be numerically smaller than the pre-war fleet of December 1941, Forrestal said it would be "faster and incomparably stronger in fire power and aviation."
Forrestal said no one knows what effect the atom bomb will have on modeling navies, but emphasized that the United States navy intends to adapt the atomic bomb to carrier-based planes.
The Army private was George L. Mark of Cleveland, O. who said he was being "railroaded" from nearby Fort Belvoir, Va. to Camp Shelby, Miss. because he had told reporters of cutting glass with bayonets and about lack of morale at Fort Belvoir.

Truman Enters Picture
Truman again entered the demobilization discussion with a White House statement that there will be "no padding in our armed forces" and that "no one is going to be held in the service a day longer than is necessary."

The president's supporters meanwhile fought in the senate to save two links in his peacetime program.
They argued in favor of more dollars a week for the unemployed and against immediate return of the U. S. Employment Service to the states.
Those were the major points up for discussion as the senate's debate over unemployment pay moved toward a climax.
There seemed a strong chance

More Refineries in Chicago Area Close as Stoppages Grow

Additional Idleness in Automobile Industry Threatened Today

(Telegraph Special Service)
New Work stoppages close down two more oil refineries in the Chicago area today as labor continued its step by step strike campaign to enforce its demands for a 30 per cent wage increase in the industry.
In simultaneous strikes called by the CIO Oil Workers International Union, more than 1,500 workers of the Sinclair Refining Company, one of the country's largest, and 100 at the Shell Oil Company, both at East Chicago, Ind., left their jobs at 10 a. m. (CWT).

Already idle across the country as the result of strikes and layoffs were more than 200,000 other workers.
Idleness for additional thousands in the nation's automobile industry was threatened by a strike in a small Ohio supplier plant.
O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Workers International, predicted the oil strikes would extend to the entire industry. Local union spokesmen said they regarded the closing of the Sinclair plant as the signal for shutdown of all Sinclair's bulk stations and pipelines across the country.

1,000 Out Since Monday
More than 1,000 other oil workers in plants in East Chicago have been on strike since Monday; about 500 were out in Detroit, and 400 in Toledo, O.
Continuance of the strike threatened to cut steel production in the big mills in the Chicago and Gary, Ind., area, with one company reporting it had already shifted from fuel to tar to carry on production.
With approximately 80,000 workers idled in the Detroit area by strikes and related shutdowns.

Evanston Police Aided by Sheriff

Evanston, Ill., Sept. 19—(AP)—Cook County highway police patrolled Evanston streets last night and early today as law enforcement officials, including auxiliary policemen, sought to break the recent wave of sex crimes and attacks on women.
Sheriff Michael Mulcahy, as the county's chief law enforcement officer, ordered the deputies into the Chicago suburb, home of Northwestern University and long known as a cultural center of the midwest, after the latest assault—the slugging of an Army aviator's mother yesterday.
"I think Evanston needs help," Mulcahy said, explaining authorities had not asked for assistance. "We're going to stay on the job until we've cleaned it up."
Because of the recent attacks on women 192 auxiliary police were trained for police patrol duty and they have been working on volunteer time.
Police records show that in the community of 63,000 there were two reported rapes, six attempted rapes and two pick attacks on women, within the last few months.

THE STORY OF THE ATOM

(1) As the approaching time was announced, minute by minute, tension in the earth and timber barricade grew where the scientists and army men were huddled for protection. No one was sure what the bomb would do, with what force it would explode, or whether the explosion would engulf them all. It was the most crucial experiment since the great forces of nature. Every one was ordered to lie face down on the

Christmas to See 2,000,000 Troops Home Says Truman

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—President Truman declared today that there will be "no padding in our armed forces" and that "no one is going to be held in the service a day longer than is necessary."

The president said in a statement that no one can accurately forecast at this time the future military needs and noted that general Douglas MacArthur had revised his own estimates of the number of troops necessary for the occupation of Japan and Korea.
MacArthur first estimated that he requested a force of 500,000, but cut this to 400,000 and then to 200,000.
"The Army's plans call for the return to their homes of more than 2,000,000 soldiers between V-J Day and Christmas, 1945," the president's statement said. "Between now and Christmas the discharge rate will steadily rise from the present daily figure of 15,200 to not less than 22,000 per day and by January, 1946, to more than 25,000 per day."

Meanwhile press secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters they would have to put their own interpretation on Truman's news conference remarks yesterday on MacArthur's occupation force statement.
No Official Interpretation
The president had observed that MacArthur reduced his preliminary estimates and commented that he was pleased to know that MacArthur thought he could get along with fewer men.
A reporter told Ross that some of those who attended the conference interpreted the president's remarks as being sarcastic and that others thought he was supporting MacArthur's estimate.
Ross said that it was up to the

Swift Confirmation of Appointments by Truman Expected

President Names Three to Major Positions in Government

BULLETIN
Washington, Sept. 19 (AP)—The senate today unanimously confirmed the appointment of Senator Harold H. Burton, Ohio Republican, to be a Supreme Court Justice.
On the motion of Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) of the judiciary committee, the senate suspended its rules to approve the nomination less than 24 hours after it was sent to the senate.

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Swift senate confirmation seemed assured today for three major appointments by President Truman. They are:
1. Senator Harold R. Burton, Ohio Republican, as Associate Justice of the Supreme court. He succeeds Republican Owen J. Roberts, resigned.
2. Robert P. Patterson, present undersecretary, as secretary of war. He succeeds Henry L. Stimson, resigned.
3. W. Stuart Symington as surplus property administrator. He takes over from a three-man board which he formerly headed.

Congressional Republicans and Democrats alike get a lift out of Truman's unexpected choice of Burton for the Supreme court—but for slightly different reasons.
Republicans liked the selection of their 57-year-old senate colleague because they regard him as a highly qualified lawyer and because he is one of them.
Democrats chuckled at the political strategy of the president. Some said he was influenced in his choice by Robert E. Hannegan, Democratic national chairman.

Cuts GOP Votes
Burton's exit from the senate will give Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, a Democrat, a chance to appoint one of his party members in that doubtful state. That would up the Democrats in the senate to 56, cut the Republicans to 39, with one Progressive.

Truman's choice of the 54-year-old

Acheson Put Out by Gen. MacArthur

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—Acting Secretary of State Acheson said today the United States government and not General Douglas MacArthur is formulating American policy for the pacification and control of Japan.
Acheson avoided specific mention of MacArthur's name at a news conference. But in sharp, quotable sentences he stated his view that the "occupation forces are the instruments of policy and not the determinants of policy" for Japan.
Acheson's statement in his capacity as directing head of the state department in the absence of Secretary Byrnes brought into the open the comments of officials here since MacArthur's announcement of future occupation figures without consultation with Washington. Behind them hands officials of both the state and war departments have been asking who was determining policy on Japan.

Jury in English Court Finds Its Verdict Quickly

London, Sept. 19—(AP)—William Joyce, Lord Haw Haw of the German radio, was convicted of treason in Old Bailey today and sentenced to hang.

A jury of 10 men and two women required less than 25 minutes to arrive at a verdict after Justice Tucker had ruled that Haw Haw had left this country in 1939 "wrapped up in the Union Jack" in order to carry on German propaganda.
The justice informed the jurors, after listening to three days of legal argument, that Joyce was not a British subject but nevertheless he owed allegiance to the British Crown when he left the country because of the protection afforded him by a British passport. This was despite of his American birth and the fact that Joyce later took out German citizenship.

Joyce will make an immediate appeal, his lawyers announced.
Trial Ends Suddenly
Joyce stood quietly while the trial was thus ending with dramatic suddenness in his sentence to death.
When he walked away toward his cell he gave what appeared to be the Nazi salute to friends in the courtroom.
When the result of the trial was heard outside bomb-scarred Old Bailey a waiting crowd of Londoners raised a cheer.

The convicted man's brother, Edwin Joyce, a British government worker, made the sign of the Cross when the sentence of death was passed, and after the prisoner left the courtroom he knelt in silent prayer.

Truman is Asked to Get 26 Nurses Home

St. Louis, Sept. 19—(AP)—An appeal has been made to President Truman for help in sending home 26 St. Louis nurses who have served overseas 35 months.
An open letter has been sent to the president, Lt. Stella D. Metzger revealed last night, asking that the group assigned to the Washington University 21st General Hospital Unit be allowed to come home soon.
In part the letter to the president stated:
"In the 35 months overseas we have always carried more patients than our capacity called for. When the call for volunteer nurses came to go to Anzio, 10 of our nurses went, willingly, for there was work to do.
"Now, sir, the war is over and we would like to come home. We are willing to take our turn, but Mr. President, we aren't even given a chance. Hospital units are snailing home with nurses who have an average score of 55 points and 24 months overseas."

Veterans Compensation Group Will Organize

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 19—(AP)—The Illinois Veterans Compensation Commission will organize Oct. 3 in Chicago. The legislative advisory group plans to study soldier bonus proposals and make recommendations to the next general assembly.
Governor Green said yesterday he doesn't plan a special session before 1947 to consider the bonus question.

New, Lengthy List of Jap Criminals Announced Today

Largest Carrier Task Force to Bring Yankee Soldiers Home

Tokyo, Sept. 19—(AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters announced today it would issue soon a new and lengthy list of suspected Japanese war criminals.
Reliable Japanese sources predicted an imminent purge of reactionary elements in the cabinet of Premier Higashi-Kuni.
Out in the Pacific the largest carrier task force ever assembled was being formed into special "carrier division 24" to carry back home the victorious drafted Army of General MacArthur.

Meanwhile the American embassy residence got busy suddenly, making preparations for the expected arrival today of Mrs. Douglas MacArthur.
Premier Prince Higashi-Kuni himself in a press conference yesterday told allied correspondents that his government intended to determine responsibility for starting the war and try its own accused, provided General MacArthur approved. The prince did not elaborate, however, and there was no word from MacArthur's headquarters on whether the Japanese would be permitted to punish their own war criminals.

Second Paper Suspended
Demonstrating its resolve to keep a firm grip on the conquered Japanese, headquarters suspended for one day a second Tokyo newspaper—the English language Nippon Times.
The paper was ordered 30 minutes before press time to withhold publication of its Thursday morning edition, not because of objectionable material but because its editors had failed to submit for American "censorship a printers' proof of an editorial on the recent change of foreign ministers.

On Tuesday, the big Japanese language paper, Asahi, was ordered to skip publication for two days, for printing inflammatory articles.
The sources who spoke of impending cabinet resignations said Vice Premier Prince Fumimaro Konohe probably would lead the list. He is a minister without portfolio. Two other cabinet members without portfolio who may step down at the same time, the sources said, are Lt. Gen. Toshihiro Obata and Taketora Ogata. The latter, who also is chief cabinet secretary, was named by MacArthur on a list of members of the "Black Dragon" Society, but it was understood American authorities had taken no action against him, in order to give the Japanese government time to prove its contention that he was no a member.

"Wide Gap" in Cabinet
The Japanese predicting the cabinet resignations said a "wide gap" existed between Premier Prince Higashi-Kuni and the three they expected to leave the government.
They described Higashi-Kuni as personally interested in the gradual democratization of Japan, both as a reform step and in compliance with the wishes of General MacArthur, and said Konohe and the others had opposed the premier's attempts to smooth relations between the Japanese and American governments.
The cabinet has been criticized

No. 14: A Terrific New Force

(4) The light was seen for a radius of more than 180 miles. A woman motorist 150 miles away on the New Mexico-Arizona border said the mountains were illuminated for about three seconds "exactly like the sun had come up and suddenly gone down again." Near Albuquerque a blind girl was said to have exclaimed "What was that light?" when the skies were suddenly illuminated.

New York — The American Broadcasting company, formerly the Blue Network, again attracts attention to its interesting editorial policy as expressed by commentators of emphatic left-wing bias, including that spectacular impostor, William Gailmor, whose mental health is subject to a doubt raised by himself as an excuse for his criminal acts.

Gailmor may be recalled as an habitual automobile thief who finally was run down by the New York police but escaped prison on a charge of grand larceny, first degree, by presenting medical testimony that he was suffering from a "compulsion neurosis."

Therefore, he was placed under guard, as the saying goes, for about one year and emerged in a new character under a new name, having been William Margolis, a renegade rabbi, in his original self. Gailmor's past, his character, the communist background of his radio sponsor, and the pro-communist quality of his interpretation of the news have been thoroughly presented hitherto in these dispatches. That he is a liar as well as a thief and a man of questionable mental balance has been revealed by the American Broadcasting company, itself, one of whose officers stated that in his original application for the responsible and potentially dangerous job of news analyst, he declared himself to be a man of no religion and concealed the facts that he had changed his name, that he had a criminal record and that he had been detained as a patient suffering from a mental disorder.

Later, when officers of the A. B. C. then the Blue Network, were presented with proof of his past, and they, in turn, confronted Gailmor, he argued that he could not be a communist because he was a man of thorough religious training and deep belief. He had denied his God for thirty pieces of silver, more or less, in applying for the job, not that it was necessary for him to do so, but only because it served some purpose of his own. Then, to decontaminate himself of a strong suspicion of communist inspiration, he embraced Him.

On the night of August 9, following President Truman's address to the nation on the Potsdam conference, Gailmor took the air at the A. B. C.'s local New York station to "interpret" the news. He "interpreted" Truman's remarks as a rebuke to the American press, or some undefined portion of the press, who were accused by Gailmor of encouraging not afford to play philanthropist to the world.

At the very least, it will be necessary to know how the receiving nation intends to use a grant or loan before the money is shelved out. Assurance must be given that American dollars will not be used to foster monopoly or otherwise hinder the development of a sounder, healthier international trade than the world has known before.

My subject in this discussion is the policy of the American Broadcasting Company in continuing to present Gailmor as an American of sound judgment and passable reputation as to honesty and truthfulness, knowing him to have been a mental case, a thief and, by its own experience, a deliberate and grievous liar. The press could not have chosen a more desirable critic representing the A. B. C. in its competition with the printed word, for Gailmor's entire character not only condemns him but turns the criticism from "the yellow journals" to the radio chain laboratory arranging a leaden case," he explained. "It is under way now, in fact. We might slip out for a bite together again, at 6:30 or so."

BUT there was no dancing at this second dinner hour together as there had been last night. Indeed, this one was a bit formal; Carolyn saw that Robert Hale was physically weary now and this disturbed her.

"You must go home as soon as you can and sleep," she ordered, kindly. All at once she felt embarrassed. Bossing her own boss!

The man with the truck came at 11:30. He was an efficient-looking but somewhat arrogant individual. Dr. Hale, Leana Sorni and Carolyn all went to the laboratory with him. Immediately both the driver and Carolyn were astounded.

From the great laboratory, surrounded by armed guards—themselves enough to arouse curiosity—Robert Hale carried a parcel no bigger than half a shoe box. But he strained with the weight of it.

"Partly wrappings, partly the leaden case," he explained to Carolyn. "The actual content is only a humble portion, of course. The lead is essential to guard against powerful radiations. It would take sudden heat or a shock like a dynamite cap to explode it, but—"

They had come then within earshot of the driver, who spoke then.

"What's in it?" he asked, jokingly. "Jewels, huh?"

"No," Dr. Hale said, calmly. "Nothing like that. But it demands the utmost care."

"Yeah? Think of that! I'll help you with the rest of 'em."

"Yeah?" The truck driver was incredulous. He had a two-ton truck, enclosed. For just one tiny parcel, hardly six inches square, to sit in that big van looked silly to him. And why did some screw professor want it sent out at night to an abandoned farm? And why must it rest, like eggs, on thick cotton padding?

"I shall be very busy in the

Japan to fight on against the American forces and obtain an "easy peace."

"Smoke from the atom-bomb obscured the view of target Nagasaki," Gailmor said, in an address so incoherent as to support the medical opinion that he was not quite right mentally and to impugn, as well, the later opinion that he was cured. "Smoke from the stench-bombs of some of our super-patriots has been getting in to the eyes of a good many people over here. The same experts and headline hawkers that cried out against the no-mention of Japan in the Potsdam communiqué are still shrieking. There is no shame for those who print and publish on the presumption that the public is morose and without memory."

He seemed to be arguing that in a few days' skirmishing in Manchuria, Russia's fight against Japan had equalled the American effort and sacrifice since Pearl Harbor. However, as herebefore observed, his "interpretations," like all communist and Nazi declarations, themselves require interpretation, and often defy it. At this point, it served the renegade's purpose to show solicitude for "American lives" whereas, in an earlier dictum he had been less humane. On that occasion, he had said it mattered not to him how long the war should last because Hitler's obliteration would be cheap at any sacrifice.

As to Gailmor, himself that sacrifice, of course, was to be strictly vicarious. Weighing 200 pounds, according to this police record, and now 24-years old, he was somehow conveniently immune. And yet, as one who had escaped prison on a plea of mental unbalance, the American Broadcasting Company's distinguished student of affairs, professing nevertheless to be well again, contrived appointment to lecture hopefully to better young men whose nerves had been jangled in battle.

The selection of an unregenerate and whining police character for such a mission was an affront to disabled soldiers for which, up to now, it has been difficult to place responsibility. We do know, of course, that under the Roosevelt-communist axis, the Army's patriotic aversion to communists was overcome to the extent that pro-communists, if not provable card-holders, were admitted to the commissioned ranks. We know also that the thief here discussed was a member of the Hollywood-Broadway-night club delegation at the salad party in the White House for Roosevelt's fourth inauguration.

"When the black smoke of the yellow journals gets in your eyes," further said our analyst, "there's nothing like a little distilled fact for an eyewash—" which presents his pro-communist propaganda.

Curiously, the usual sources were mysteriously unable or unwilling to provide verbatim transcripts of this particular commentary from the thief of the A. B. C., but Ed Noble, its president, on personal request, dug up the copy and mailed it along. Mr. Noble was one of those who nevertheless engaged this thief when he had been warned of his character and retained him following the denunciation and his confession.

"LET'S GROW DIXON"

With hundreds of our service men coming home to the near future there is more here to make them want to stay here and start a business of their own. Yes, it is true that Dixon will mostly be made up of them—for a while. But those that have traveled all over the United States from Dixie to Dixie and back, and seen the big cities and have seen the big ideas that will want to work out, good ideas because many of them have had great and specialized training, and if they come home to the same old self-satisfied town willing to live in the past, as all too many do live and think, they are going to take those big ideas some place else. It is our job to help them here, to give them the best and as cooperative to their new ideas as any other town or city. We have everything here to make a bigger and better city in which to live, work and play, so let's take advantage of these things and get the ball rolling before they get home. It is for this reason and out of a long felt need for an unselfish group of people to help promote and publicize our city to means of making those of us who live within its borders, and its beauty and endless potential possibilities, that the Dixon Development Committee was organized recently. We will accept and welcome any constructive help, suggestions, and cooperation from anyone and in any way mentioned as long as the goal is the same as ours, to build a better city for all. We are a group will not support any candidate for any office who will not accept any help or support from any one point at party or candidate, or group of parties.

We will enlist the volunteer aid of school children for different light projects. We will use posters and murals in store windows for publicity on any projects. We will welcome the aid of newspapers, etc., in furthering our efforts.

We will endeavor to put the name of our city in every conceivable prominent place as well as the slogan "Let's Grow Dixon." So that by "talking it up" we will get the minds of the average citizen to thinking and working on the idea of building a better city.

As we think we are so small we have been making efforts to be made to encourage business and residential districts. Never before has there been such a need for a newspaper, any worthwhile paper, to lend our assistance to it. To command attention on his or her place of business, which adds to the beauty of the city, by his newspaper ads. Command any outstanding attractive window display in the same manner.

Command our public officials and industries on the same basis. They may make beautiful and attractive to outside business, "street" the city, and work to make the little detentions, attractive and the little attractions, bigger and better. Keep in mind that would be the best thing to do.

What any other city can do or offer, let's do it. Let's grow Dixon. We have everything to lose and nothing to gain. Cooperate. Dixon Development Committee.

DIXON, ILL. — Acting Chm. WALTER ZING, SAM ARNOLD, EARL SLAGLE, JERRY B. TENNANT, JACK LADDIE.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness during our late bereavement in the loss of our beloved mother.

Curiously, the usual sources were mysteriously unable or unwilling to provide verbatim transcripts of this particular commentary from the thief of the A. B. Mr. Noble was one of those who nevertheless engaged this thief when he had been warned of his character and retained him following the denunciation and his confession.

Jockeys Put Off Strike for Week

Chicago, Sept. 19 — (AP) — Threat of a strike of jockeys at Chicago's Hawthorne track, and at Fairmount Park at Collingsville, Ill., has been postponed until at least next Sunday.

The jockeys, members of the Jockeys' Community Fund and Guild, had announced Monday they would not accept mounts today unless the Illinois racing board reconsidered its action in refusing a riding license to Warren Eads, Charleston, Ill., rider.

John P. Kelly, general manager of the Guild, said the strike postponement was ordered when the Guild's board of directors, all of whom are jockeys, requested a complete transcript of testimony in the hearing at which Eads was denied a license. The board includes the following jockeys, most of them leaders in their profession: Ted Atkinson, Conn McCreary, Porter Roberts, Eddie Arcaro, Joe Renick, John Gilbert, Sterling Young, Nick Wall, George Hettinger, Steve Brooks and Freddy Smith.

The racing board based its refusal of a license for Eads, who last rode at Florida's Tropical Park in April, 1944, on what it said was a list of 26 rulings against the jockey involving infractions of riding laws and a total of $850 in fines.

Kelly said the Guild has a membership embracing 98 per cent of all jockeys on American tracks.

King-Risetter Nuptials Event of Late Summer

The Graham Taylor chapel, at the Chicago Theological Seminary, was the setting on Wednesday, Aug. 29, for a formal summer wedding.

Nuptial vows were exchanged between Kathryn King and Hamilton Risetter of Paw Paw, before the floral, candle-lit altar, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Rev. G. R. Drees performed the ceremony. Mrs. Gordon LaSage, friend of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love." "All for You," and "O Promise Me."

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and in single file the two bridesmaids and the matron of honor proceeded down the long white carpeted aisle and were followed by the bride, who was escorted by her father.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. King of Chicago, was dressed in a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with a full skirt, train, and long sleeves, ending in points over the wrists. She wore a fingertip blusher veil with a pearl tiara, and a pearl necklace belonging to her mother. The bridal bouquet was centered with a corsage of white orchids.

Attending the bride were the two bridesmaids, Miss Jane Kinsley, and Miss Georgia Schmitt, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Bruce Wheeler. Pete Svetika, uncle of the groom, attended Mr. Risetter, and ushering were Dale Risetter, cousin of the groom, and Gordon LaSage, a friend of the couple.

The matron of honor wore a yellow taffeta gown with a net blusher veil, and carried a net muff with a corsage of orchids. The bridesmaids attire of aqua, was fashioned the same as Mrs. Wheeler's but had muffs with a corsage of red roses.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. H. B. King, wore a rose sheer evening gown with white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Lettie Risetter, wore a turquoise blue sheer evening gown with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception took place in the Clarence Sydney Funk cloisters and gardens adjoining the chapel for the many friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

After the happy couple return from their honeymoon on Makinac Islands, they will reside at the farm home of Mrs. Lettie Risetter, just north of Paw Paw.

Miss Marna M'Inturf Bride J. Rex Flach in Lovely Ceremony

Before an altar banked with white gladioli, greenery, and cathedral candles in Holy Cross church at nine o'clock Saturday morning Miss Marna M'Inturf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McInturf, 401 Fifth Ave., Mendota, Ill., became the bride of J. Rex Flach, Sr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Flach, Sr., 1518 E. 69th St., Chicago.

The vows were repeated before Rev. Leo Wissing, pastor, at a Nuptial High Mass in a single ring ceremony.

A whit- runner was spread in the church aisle for entry of the bridal party. Large white satin bows decorated the pews in the honor; Miss Helen Kaufman as corted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage.

Chosen to be the bride's attendants were Miss Arlene McInturf, sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Miss Helen Kaufman as bridesmaid; Mary Rose Bushman, flower girl; Leo Eddy Bushman, ring bearer; Kenneth Bulfer, brother-in-law of the groom, was chosen as best man. James Vaughan, cousin of the groom, and John Dunphy, a close friend, were the ushers.

White satin was chosen for the bridal gown and was featured with a fitted bodice closing down the back with tiny, self-covered buttons, having a sweetheart neckline, wedding ring waistline, and long puffed sleeves ending in a point over the wrist.

The bouffant skirt of net was trimmed diagonally with white satin bows, ending in a long train. The double finger tip veil of illusion was scalloped and trimmed with rosettes and edged with pleated net. It was held in place by pearlized orange blossoms. The veil was worn over the face and lifted by the maid of honor after wedding vows were exchanged.

The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations with a red-lipped orchid in the center and satin streamers with flowers attached. The bride's only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss McInturf, maid of honor, wore a petal pink gown with a bodice of jersey and full skirt of net applied with the jersey in a flower pattern. She wore long white gloves and her headpiece was a Juliette cap of the same shade with a blusher veil worn

NIGHTLY CLEANSING
MEANS GOOD SKIN
Did you know that the pores of the skin tend to open slightly while you sleep? Not to stagger you with knowledge is this nugget of information given, but to impress upon you why skin should be cleaned, even before you take an afternoon nap. Any foreign matter left on your skin will seize this opportunity to move in.

Imagine, then the risk a careless girl takes who allows herself to fall asleep at night before she whisks off her make-up!

No matter how late the hour, or how tired you are, haul out the jar of cleansing cream or, if you are a soap-and-water girl, the sudsy cloth. You don't want a nice complexion to be marred by enlarged pores, blackheads, embedded dirt or annoying blemishes, do you?

Trail Ride and Chicken Supper Largely Attended

The trail ride, chicken supper and western dance, sponsored by John Senn and Bill Chids at Grand Detour, Sunday evening, was attended by a large group of horsemen and horsewomen from four counties.

The trail ride started from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Senn at 6 p. m. After a 12 mile ride along the scenic Rock river and nearby woodlands in the brisk evening air, the party enjoyed a home-cooked chicken supper which was prepared by Mrs. Senn and daughter.

At about 10 p. m., in the basement of the Senn home, (which had been beautifully decorated), an old time western dance was enjoyed by the cowboys and cowgirls. Everyone had a gay time.

Miss Wagner of Ansoy entertained by singing several western songs, which added to the "real old" western atmosphere.

It has been suggested that other parties of this type be held in the near future, and the traditions of the old west be followed.

Cards Edge Chicago As Solons Win

By JERRY LISKA
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs, loudly moaning the St. Louis Blues, were on the National League ropes today as they defended a shaky two-game lead against the irrepresible world champion Cardinals, whose amazing hex over the Bruins seems destined to produce a photo pennant finish.

(Baseball followers regard the Cardinals a better bet to catch Chicago than Washington is to close the gap on Detroit even though the Tiger's lead is only a game and a half after yesterday's 12-5 loss to the Nats, writes Associated Press sports writer Jack Hand from New York. The Senators are running out of games with only five to go and no more with the Bengals.)

Borowy Is Loser
To stop the rampaging Red Birds, who last night cuffed the Cubs 3-2 for the 14th time in 18 starts this season, not-so-jolly Cholly Grimm sent ex-Yankee Hank Borowy to the mound with the hope that the slim right-hander might emulate his Sept. 21 victory over St. Louis. That 4-1 triumph snapped a five-game Cardinal winning streak over Chicago.

It's difficult to explain how the Bruins, who have slapped around every other club in the league almost as they pleased, lay down and play dead when they come up against the Cardinals, but that's what has happened season-long and particularly in last night's opener of a decisive three-game series.

They collected only seven hits off Charley (Red) Barrett and their only two runs of the evening were unearned. That was the fourth decision of the season over the Cubs for the ex-Boston pitcher and gave the bargain-of-the-year tosser his 22nd triumph against 11 defeats.

Manager Billy Southworth of the Cardinals, getting frisky over his team's evengale effect on the Cubs, announced he would wait until game time to select either George Docking or Art Lopatka, a recent minor league graduate, to hurl the second game.

May Use Green Pitcher
Docking, who has an 8-4 record, triumphed 3-2 in his last start against the Cubs Sept. 1, while Lopatka defeated Brooklyn 3-2 in his only Cardinal start since he was acquired from Columbus of the American Association.

To counteract a possible Cub victory tonight, Southworth plans to send either Harry Breechen (13-3) or Ken Burkhardt (16-8) to the mound tomorrow night, while Grimm has indicated he will rely on ancient Ray Prim, who lost without a victory to the Cards.

The Cubs and Cards each have 10 games remaining to play, four more against each other including a two-game stand at Chicago, Sept. 25.

Victim of last night's Cardinal triumphs before 22,174 fans was veteran Claude Passeau, who yielded 10 hits and was handed his eighth setback against 17 wins, chiefly by Whitey Kurowski. The brawny third sacker drove across all three Cardinal runs, one in the first after the Cubs had taken a 2-0 lead and two in the fifth.

The Detroit-Washington series finale was a nightmarish ball game, played on the muddy turf of Griffith Stadium.

Trout Knocked Out
Dizzy Trout was driven to cover in the first inning when the Senators scored four runs but, after they had added another in the third, the Tigers flattened Walt Masterson with five to tie in the sixth. The Nats then opened up on George Caster, Hal Newhouser and Zeb Eaton for bundles of four in the seventh and three in the eighth to tie it. Caster was charged with his first loss since joining Detroit and Dutch Leonard, the third of four Washington tossers, picked up the winning check.

Washington is idle today but Detroit is down to face Bobby Feller in the opener of a two-day stand at Cleveland. However, if the Tigers win five of their remaining eight tilts, the Senators can do no better than tie even if they win all five.

Cincinnati split a doubleheader with Boston in the only other National League games, coming back to grab the second, 6-2 after losing the opener, 3-1, on three successive errors by Kermitt Wahl in the 11th inning Cincinnati's Hank Sawyer hit three homers, one in the first tilt and two in the nightcap.

Two doubleheaders, St. Louis at New York and Cleveland at Philadelphia were rained out and the other clubs were not scheduled.

Bowling Bits

By "FRIDAY"

In the I. N. U. league last night at the Recreation Machine Shop, Accounting No. 2 and Engineering Dept. all ended up in a three-way tie for the top spot, with five wins and one loss. Machine Shop held their share of first by winning two from Dixon Power Station 3, Leonard topped the Machine Shop with 503 and Russell's 568 led the Power Station.

Accounting No. 2 took all three of their games from the night Dept. with Moore's 425 high for Accounting and Stanley leading the Gas Dept. with 389.

Engineering Dept. gained their share of first with a three-game win over Contract Dept. Donaldson topped Engineering with 176 and Nettie led Contract with 468.

Sales Dept. rolled into a tie for fourth with District "D" (4-2) by taking two out of three from Accounting Dept. No. 1. Les Higgs led Sales Dept. with 489 and Forrest Trautwein's 507 sparked the Accountants.

District "D" gained their share of fourth by winning two from the Draftsmen, with Fane high for District "D" with 468 and Joyce Sparking the Draftsmen with 468.

Dixon Power Station No. 2 won two games from Statistical Dept. with Hanger's 443 high and Dale Sennett leading Statistical Dept. with 471.

Traveling Auditors won two from Kilowatts with "Peewee" Schertner's 567 high for the Auditors and Roper leading Kilowatts with 474.

Garage also won two from Dixon Power Station. The first time the auto-fixers were able to break into the win column. Bill Lieving led Garage with 570 and Guppy's 479 was high for Power Station.

Bill Lieving had the high game and high score for the league. Accounting Dept. No. 1 also set a new high for team game with 1033 in their first set, and Machine Shop rolled a new high series of 2832. "Peewee" Schertner had the only other high game with 215 in his second set.

In the Lincoln Lanes Men's loop Churns Bros. and Groceries and Easys postponed their last night's match.

Modern Woodmen won two from Farmers with H. Karker's 485 high for the Woodmen and Hank Channess sparking the Farmers with 495.

State Hospital won all three of their games from Knights of Columbus, with Hand's 488 high for the Hospital and Charlie Burke's 455 topping the Cases.

A. & P. Super Market won two from Nachusa with Bill Austin leading A. & P. with 519 and Strong topped Nachusa with 455.

Bill Austin had the high series of the night with 519 and Handy 213 count in his first set was the high game of the night.

Tonight at the Recreation Classic league takes over all eight alleys on both shifts. The boys are still holding their averages up with 181 the bottom figure of the ten high which line up as follows:

Carl Becker ..... 163
W. Ellis ..... 160
John Smith ..... 159
John Lange ..... 158
George Jacobs ..... 154
Andy Ventler ..... 153
Oscar Witzleb ..... 152
Choppy Rosbrook ..... 152

Clell Weidman ..... 182
Al Wolfe ..... 181

Friday night at the Recreation. Ken is starting the first of his special events, which take over the alleys on the last shift Friday night. The first tournament is a mixed singles, with the girls receiving the same handicap as the men, both based on a 190 top. Bowling will start about 9:00 o'clock and you may enter any time before the first ball is rolled.

In catching up with Monday's scores, we notice Phyllis Carson set a new season mark for high game and series with 218 and 568. John Russell was the most consistent leader in the N. U. loop last night with a spread of eight pins in his games of 186-188-194, all good counts.

At the Lanes Johnson on the Nachusa team had the same difference with 181-181-193. After the Accounting No. 2 set a new high game mark in their first set last night, nerves got the better of all the keepers, but Forrest Trautwein, who kept getting better in his last two, the other four ending Ralph Salzman, 123; George Lebre 136; Thomas 100 and Mercer 115, all of them probably upped by George Lebre, who had 174 in the eighth with a spare in the ninth of the first set and still only counted 196.

Some of the better bowlers in Dixon are beginning to talk to John Cahill and Willard Jones, who are enjoying the highest averages of their young lives with 188 and 184, respectively. Both are considering dropping out of the league before tomorrow night in order to keep this high figure.

Fred Meinke asked us not to mention his total pins last night so we're unable to compliment him on coming within five pins of his wife's count of 417 on Monday night.

That sign in the Garage at the I. N. U. today reading 2832 is not an auto license, just a modest way Bill Lieving has of letting the boys know how good he is. Some one should inform the I. N. U. bowlers that bowling scores are supposed to be in three figures, last night there were 15 below the century mark with 74 the bottom figure, the Gas Dept., being especially noteworthy with four in their second game. W. Nettz 87, Kanupp 80, Benson 74 and Clausen 92, which added to Stanley's 136 gave them an actual pin total of 485 or an average of 97 per man.

SPORTS

After a bad first night's practice, the Duke gridders went through last night in scrimmage sessions with a vengeance, looking better than they have at any time previous to this week. Coach Marvin Winger is hauling out his long face to go with his pre-season fears, for he realizes that his charges still don't know their plays well enough to work with out the play-book. His brooding over the lack of game experience in his squad can be justified, for the teams he has to face soon will all have previous practice games under their belts, plus many long practice sessions in which they had a chance to iron out any difficulty and improve all weak spots.

The local mentor won't know many of the weak sections until after the first game, with DeKalb, which is really no team to go up against without knowledge of what all is wrong with an aggregation.

Since it can't be helped, however, the Dukes will be rolling into the Barb club with everything they possess, and any errors or bad weak holes will have to be taken care of later. Despite Winger's bleak mood, the team is full of pep and spirit, and seem to be instilled with a quiet confidence that will help them through many tough spots. Their willingness to try and their fine spirit would be a boost to any coach's morale.

Freshman coach L. E. Sharpe put the green youngsters into action for their first real work-out last evening, and from the size of some of the lads, there is good promise for some tough, heavy weighters in years to come.

Lightweight coach Loverde kept his underclassmen on the hop, keeping them busy learning plays and going through scrimmages, whipping them into shape for any games they may play in the near future.

Speed Saunders is a kind-hearted soul, but as far as his team goes, he wants them to have their batting eyes sharpened to a fine point for the game coming Sunday with the Chicago Black Barons.

The local club worked out almost as if they meant it last evening at Reynold's Field, and pilot Saunders can't be expected to spare the whip when as big team from Chicago is due out on the following Sunday.

Big Charlie Davis is stretching his long arm and keeping his tongue in his cheek, thinking about the coming "tilt" and hoping he will be "on" when he takes the mound against the highly rated Barons. Although a victory is doubtful for the locals, they will be getting their first test against a quality club, and if they make a good showing, they will have proven their ability around this section.

Tom Tatum, former infielder with Montreal in the International League, drove out 22 hits in his first 43 trips to the plate for a 511 average with the Wanderers in the Havana League. He is in the Air Forces.

The football team of the AAF Personnel Distribution Command here is being coached by Capt. Ted Shipley, former star end at Stanford University.

Hines, Ill., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The convalescing, dough boys who fought America's latest war forgot about the smell of gunpowder and the burst of bombs today to relive an inter-hospital sports fiesta they had dubbed the "O-Lump-ics."

At Mayo General Hospital in Galesburg, Ill., and Vaughn General Hospital here battle casualties stopped their wheelchairs or leaned out of beds still talking over the big meet that 88 of their wounded buddies had run off here yesterday.

No one cared much which team had won, even though a champion was designated on the basis of arbitrary point awarded the winning team in each event. If they wanted to know, they learned the day-long series of events had been won by the Mayo veterans 24 to 21.

Bed cases some few weeks before, many of the participants appeared physically sound again. Some of them wore braces or moved on crutches. One of them helped Vaughan win the archery competition while shooting from a wheelchair.

Sports competition was nothing new for many of these veterans, 90 per cent of whom were battle casualties. The way they played was.

There was 2nd Lt. Robert Pinkowski, 22, of Cicero, Ill., for example. Before he entered the Air Corps, he had played an end in football for St. Ignatius high school in Chicago. Yesterday he sat in his wheelchair, his right leg gone and paralyzed from the waist down, shooting well enough to help Vaughan win the archery event.

Pfc. Robert Hater of Cincinnati and Vaughn hospital played volleyball with one hand, his left one bandaged after a shrapnel wound suffered in New Guinea. In 1941 he had been an end on Ohio State's football squad.

Eight events, altogether, were run off before the cheering crowds of spectators from the hospitals who watched the events indoors and out.

Mayo was the high scorer in badminton, table tennis and horse-shoe. Vaughn won the softball game, golf tournament and volleyball competition, in addition to archery, while croquet points were equally divided.

NEED FOR U. S.-SOVIET AMITY STRESSED — "If the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. do not stick together, Hitler even in death will have won the war!" warns John Gunther in Liberty magazine. Although we have beaten Germany, the German problem still hasn't been liquidated; peace for America and the world is dependent upon our future relations with Russia, says Gunther.

Luba Malina, singing star of Marinka, Broadway's new hit musical, knows that the men on furlough love home-baked cakes and cookies. Here Miss Malina proves her point with the aid of Robert Sullivan, Q.M.2c and a luscious cake fresh from her oven. You'll be sure of a fine, even texture in your furlough celebration cakes if you make them the mix-easy way with cake flour and double-acting baking powder. If you're short of sugar, remember that a prepared chocolate pudding makes a good, filling and topping, and that corn syrup frostings are luscious and sweet.

OLD TIMERS MEET — Hollywood — D. W. Griffith (left), veteran screen producer, visits Lionel Barrymore on the movie lot. Lionel is sporting quite a handlebar for one of his new roles.

FISTS CLASPED IN FRIENDSHIP — New York — Former ring opponents, Jess Willard and Commander Jack Dempsey, celebrate together with some friends. Much water has passed under the bridge since the memorable Fourth of July in 1919 when Dempsey scored a three-round knockout over Willard.

ANOTHER POLKA PIN-UP — Winter Haven, Fla. — Martha Gray is perky in polka dots and boasts fan mail from boys overseas since her photographs appeared on magazine covers.

The bits of crisp lingerie touches that glamorize a basic wardrobe can be kept snowy if you dissolve bluing flakes in the suds when you wash them. This method of bluing in the suds assures gleaming white lingerie touches without streaks; and it saves time, too, by eliminating the need for a special bluing job. Then follow with two clear rinses. Your dainties can be ironed to satiny smoothness with quickness and ease if you add a quarter of a cake of a specially prepared wax-like product to each quart of starch to keep your iron from pulling and sticking. Even the most cobwebby lace and the sheerest net will slide smoothly under the iron.

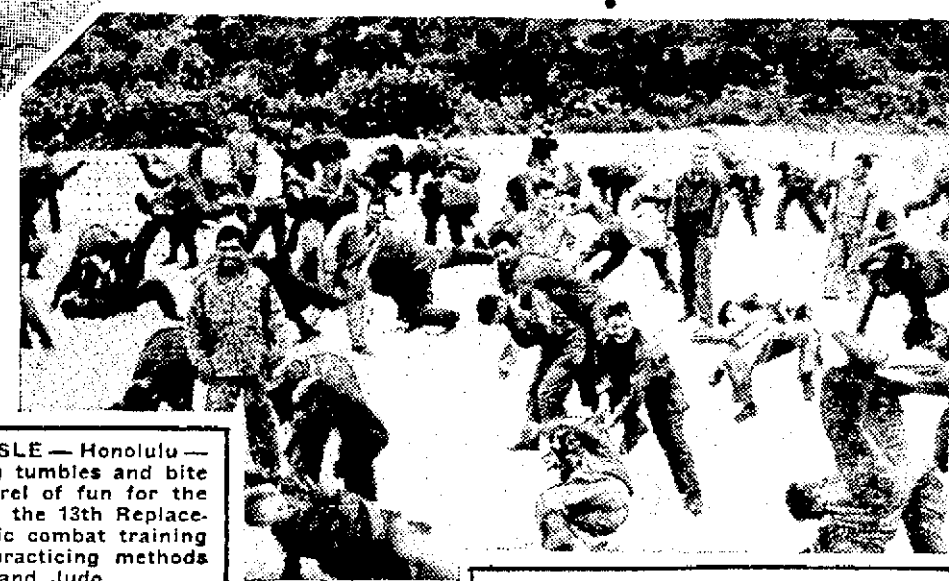

It's an easy bit of kitchen magic to make velvety smooth ice cream for the family without adding a grain of sugar. The trick is to use sweetened condensed milk, a rich creamy blend of whole milk and sugar. For 5 generous portions of vanilla ice cream, mix 1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk, 1/2 cup water and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Chill. Add 1 cup chilled light cream or evaporated milk. Mix well. Freeze rapidly in freezing unit of refrigerator until half frozen. Scrape from freezing trap into chilled bowl. Beat until smooth but not melted. Replace in freezing unit. Before mixture is completely frozen, beat again until smooth. Finish freezing.

NO BOLONEY — IT'S BEEF — Now that the Department of Agriculture has announced that civilian meat supplies will return to the pre-war average, housewives should not expect more meat than they have had since 1941. These photos show some of the prospective steaks moving through the Kansas City Stock Yards.

WHATA SOFT LIFE — Hollywood — All dolled up in lace and—well, lace—Lynne Baggett has a soft time lounging on a fur prop.

GOOD NATURED TUSSELE — Honolulu — The boys can take flying tumbles and bite the sand but it is a barrel of fun for the casual enlisted men from the 13th Replacement Depot at the Pacific combat training center here. They are practicing methods of hand-to-hand combat and Judo.

SEND OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS MAIL EARLY — New York — Postmaster General R. Hannegan unveils the U. S. Army and Navy Postal Services' official Christmas Overseas Gifts poster urging the public to mail their overseas Christmas gifts between September 15th and October 15th.

GETTING READY FOR NEW SEASON — Charlie Forsyth, sound effects man on the Lux Radio Theatre, is shown at work in the car he uses going "on location" to record new sounds for radio's top dramatic show. The Lux Radio Theatre will be back in its regular place on the air Monday evenings at 9:00 p.m. (EWT) over CBS, beginning August 27.

DON'T OVERDRESS BABY when you take him outdoors in warm weather. A sun suit or a pair of knitted trunks gives a little more protection for cooler days. Before and after your baby's daily sunning, apply a baby lotion containing lanolin with an antiseptic ingredient added for extra protection. This routine will help keep baby's sensitive skin free of sun and wind burn and gives mother's hands a beauty bonus too. Schedule sun baths in the early morning or late afternoon on very hot days and always avoid the noon-day glare.

From Hawaii

Following are excerpts from letters received by the Floyd News from their son Larry stationed with the U. S. Army in Hawaii:

Dear Folks: Several of us are gathered around a piano singing. It is beautiful but makes me a little homesick. Right now they are singing "Let the Rest of the World Go By." I saw Keith Myers last night (this was written July 15), the first I've seen him or three years. He looked fine, more solid and taller than when last saw him. It's funny how all of a sudden you look around and realize that you have grown up.

It seems such a short time since we were kids running around back in the hills barefooted and as wild as Indians. I guess those days are gone forever. Keith and I sat up half the night talking about old times. It surely seemed great to see someone from home.

We talked about the little white schoolhouse on the hill and the games we used to play in the yard and of our high school days. Today our schoolmates are scattered over the face of the earth. Keith is moving on, so this is the last I will see of him for awhile.

I am not in cryptography any more because the war is over and most of the messages that used to be sent in code can now go in the clear, so they put us in tele-type. I have worked the States, Guam, Canton where I used to be and many other places. It seems wonderful that one can type "hello" and it prints it on a teletype three thousand miles away at same instant. On the night shift when there isn't much to do I talk to my pals on Canton Island.

It seems wonderful to talk with someone two thousand miles away by just typing on a keyboard. How nice it would be, Mom, if you could sit at your typewriter and we could talk to each other.

Please remember me to my friends back home. It makes me happy to learn that many of the boys who were over so long, can soon go back to the States. It will probably be a year or a year and a half before I get back.

High School, College Students Entitled to Deferment of Draft

Washington, Sept. 19—(AP)—From now on most high school boys will not have to enter military service until they have been graduated.

The conditions required for postponement of induction are these: 1. A boy must have entered high school or a similar institution before he became 18.

2. His course of instruction must be pursued "continuously and satisfactorily."

If he meets these two conditions, he may ask for a draft board postponement until he has been graduated, or until he reaches his 20th birthday, whichever is sooner.

Selective Service also announced last night that college or university students who enrolled before reaching 18 may have their induction delayed in order to complete the current school quarter or semester.
